

For Immediate Release

BRITISH OLYMPIC BASKETBALL TEAM TO VISIT LOYOLA

The Loyola Basketball Warriors will play host to the British Olympic Basketball Team on Tuesday evening, February 8th, at 8:00 P.M. at the Loyola Athletic Complex.

The British squad, which will represent Great Britain in the 1972 Olympic Games, will be one of the finest quintets to make an appearance on the local scene over the last few years. With a lineup that includes seven players 6'4" or taller, the British outfit promises to be a real crowd-pleaser. The biggest member of the squad is 6'10" Willie Cameron.

Other members of the team include Rick Mann, an Oxford University graduate and expert in the Russian language, and 6'7" Vic Collins, the tallest Constable on the City of London police force.

HOCKEY:

WARRIORS MEET GEORGLANS IN "MUST - GAME" FOR BOTH TEAMS

The Loyola Hockey Warriors will meet Sir George Williams University Georgians on Wednesday, February 9, at 8:00 P.M. at the Loyola Sports Complex.

The Warriors currently are in first place in the Q.U.A.A. with the Georgians not far behind. It is a "must game" for both clubs as a Sir George victory would put them right back into the race for the top spot.

Although Loyola took the first contest by a score of 6-1 past performance has proved that when these two cross-town rivals meet anything can happen.

Steve Konchalski
Office - 489-7284
Home - 489-3380